

Saturday, February 3

San Dieguito Wetlands Restoration Project

10News Live at 5 p.m.

An $80 million environmental mitigation project is taking place near Del-Mar. For centuries, the area was the wetlands of the San Dieguito river, but all that changed during world war two when the Navy took over. Check out these websites for more information.

More More